

More than searching presented by Stephanie Burdiak

Google Apps for Education

- A free suite of productivity tools
- Includes
 - Drive
 - Docs (word processing)
 - Sheets (spreadsheet)
 - Slides (presentation)
 - Drawing
 - Email
 - Calendar

Google Chrome

- Browser made by Google
- Best browser for full functionality of Google products
- Free download for PC and Mac

Shared computers

- Only one person is logged into Google at a time
- Use incognito for a 2nd person to logon
- Only student logons will work with the IPSD204 Google world

Google Drive

- Free cloud storage
- Accessible anywhere, anytime with internet
- Share
- Collaborate
- Create:
 - Docs, Sheets
 - Slides, Drawing

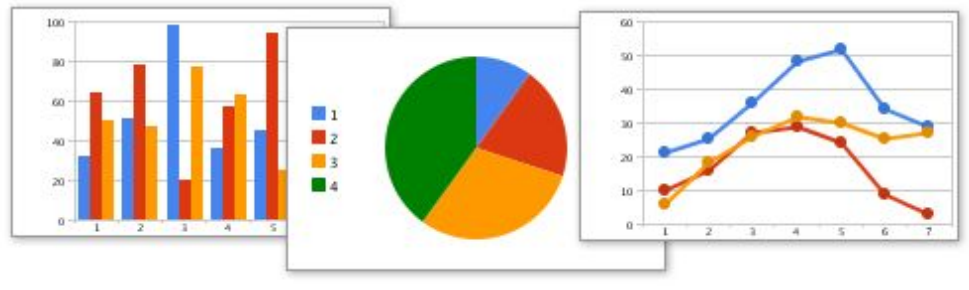

Docs

- Word processing application
- Similar to Microsoft Word
- Auto saves to Google Drive
- Has voice typing tool built-in

Sheets

- Spreadsheet application
- Similar to Microsoft Excel
- Great for working with numbers
- Can quickly build charts

Slides

- Presentation application
- Similar to Microsoft PowerPoint
- Great for creating slides to use for a class presentation

Email

- Students have a gmail account
- Can only send and receive within the IPSD204 domain
- No ads
- Filtered from inappropriate sites
- Archived for disciplinary purposes

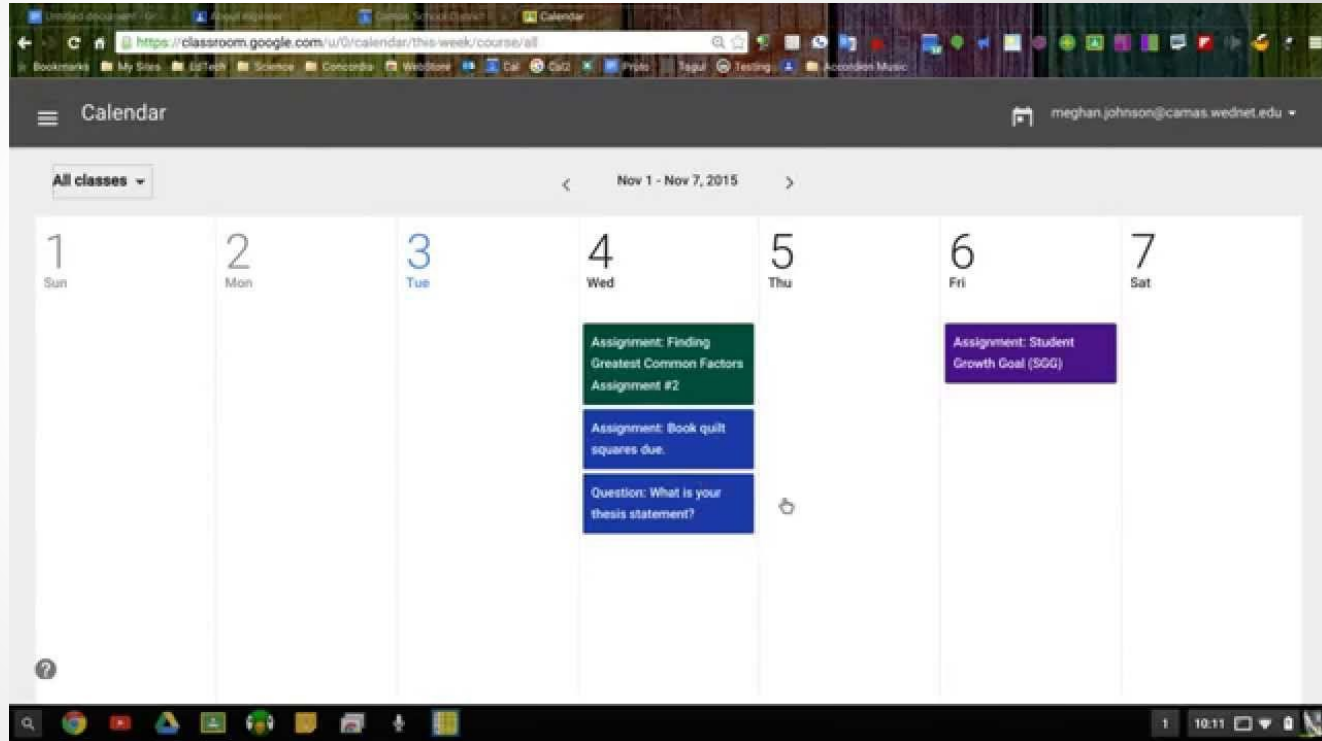

Classroom

- Teachers can
 - go paperless
 - communicate efficiently
 - provide feedback quickly
- Students can
 - organize work easily
 - complete and turn in work anywhere
 - communicate with teacher

Classroom Calendar

Students can see all upcoming assignment s in one location

Where to go tonight for answers...

Visit the GENIUS BAR in the LMC for answers to all your tech questions

